

U.S. Chinese Anti-Cancer Association (USCACA 美中抗癌协会) 2025 (AACR)-Travel Awards

The USCACA is pleased to invite nominations for the USCACA 2025 (AACR) Travel Awards. The Awards will recognize 2 to 5 junior Chinese investigators who have been selected for an oral presentation at 2025 AACR. Selection of the award will be made on selection of oral presentations at AACR and the basis of significant contributions in Basic, Translational or Clinical Cancer Research. The winners will receive an Award Recognition Certificate and 1,000 US dollars to cover partial cost for their AACR travels.

The Winners will be awarded at the 2025 AACR-USCACA joint meeting on April 26, 2025 in Chicago.

Nominations may be made by either an USCACA member or nonmember and should be submitted via e-mail attachments to the Scholarship Selection Committee of USCACA at 2024award@uscaca.org no later than 12:00 midnight of April 15, 2025, US Eastern Standard Time.

The following materials must be included in the nominations:

1. Notice for selection of an oral presentation at AACR 2025
2. Travel plan
3. A nomination letter addressed to the Selection Committee, concisely describing the candidate's achievements
4. Candidate's curriculum vitae, including a complete list of his or her publications
5. Please send the above documents in a single pdf file.

The deadline for nomination is April 15, 2024
